Berlin, March 31. N. S.

THE King has allotted a Fund of Twenty thouſand Dollars a Year, to augment the Salaries of the Civil Liſt, which were very much leſſen'd by the Reductions made ſoon after his Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Crown. The King has at laſt conſented upon the repeated Inſtances of the City of Hamburgh, to permit ſuch Commodities to be brought from thence as are leaſt ſuſceptible of any Infection, and two Commiſſioners are gone thither to take care that the Method preſcribed by his Majeſty be obſerved in ſending away the Goods deſign'd for this Country. It is ſaid, the King intends to make a general Review of his Troops about the beginning of May, and that he will afterwards go into Pruſſia. Monſieur Poſadosky is ſet out for Quedlimbourg, in order to take Poſſeſſion of that Government, which was lately conferred upon him, and from thence he is to proceed to Brunſwick. Count Van der Nath, who reſided for ſome time in the Court of Great Britain, is lately arrived here.

Hanover, March 30. N. S. To Morrow this Court intends to go into Mourning for the Duke of Wolfenbuttel, who died on the 27th at Brunſwick, in the Eighty firſt Year of his Age. He is ſucceeded by Duke Auguſtus William, his eldeſt Son. Monſieur de Roſenkrans, Envoy of Denmark at the Court of Great Britain, arrived here ſome Days ago in his way to Brunſwick, where he is appointed to reſide in Quality of one of the Plenipotentiaries of his Daniſh Majeſty. This Morning General Bulau review'd the Regiment of Guards under his Command. His Electoral Highneſs hath reſolved to reform his Troops in a ſhort time, and it is ſaid Eighteen Men are to be disbanded out of every Company of Foot, and that the Horſe will be reduced in proportion. The Imperial Regiment of Dragoons, quarter'd in the Dioceſe of Hildeſheim, has received Orders to be in a readineſs to march out of that Biſhoprick, which is to be reſtor'd to the Elector of Cologn by the Preliminary Articles of Peace between the Emperor and France. They write from Swerin, that the Governor of Wiſmar was commanded by the King of Sweden to provide that Place with all things neceſſary for a vigorous Defence in caſe it ſhould be attack'd, upon which he had ſummon'd the Inhabitants of the Dutchy of Mecklenbourg to pay him Contributions, threatning them with Military Execution in caſe they refuſed. But he was afterwards prevail'd on to deſiſt from his Demand, upon the Repreſentations made to him by the Duke of Mecklenbourg, that his Subjects were already ruin'd by the Armies of the Northern Princes. We have received Advice from Stralſund, that the Regency of Sweden had ſent for General Tucker, Governor of that Place, to Stockholm, but he excuſed himſelf from going thither without an expreſs Order from the King. Letters from Petersbourg bring an Account, that the Czar's Army in Finland, conſiſting of Fifteen thouſand Men, had advanc'd to encounter the Swediſh Troops in the Province, but the Muſcovite General, finding them poſted to great Advantage, would not attack them, tho' they amounted to no more than Six or Seven thouſand Men. It is ſaid, the Swedes in a ſhort time will have an Army of Forty thouſand Men to oppoſe their Enemies.

Hamburgh, April 3. N. S. The 22d paſt, was obſerv'd here as a Day of Thankſgiving for the Deliverance of this City from the Contagious Diſtemper. The ſame Evening the Adminiſtrator of Holſtein arrived here from Harbourg. On the 26th there was a Conference between the Commiſſioners of Pruſſia and thoſe of our Senate, in which the former declar'd in their Maſter's Name, that his Majeſty would grant a free Paſſage through his Country for all our Commodities. Count Reventlaw is come hither to receive Inſtructions from the Duke Adminiſtrator his Maſter. Before he left the Court of Hanover, he ſent two Memorials to the Aſſembly at Brunſwick, in which he endeavours to prove, that the King of Denmark had broke the Neutrality with the Houſe of Holſtein before Count Steinbock enter'd into that Dutchy. We have receiv'd advice, that the Queen Dowager of Denmark dy'd on the 27th of laſt Month. His Daniſh Majeſty intends to command his Army in Perſon next Campaign, and thoſe who are to attend upon him are already order'd to prepare their Equipages. It is ſaid he has laid aſide the Deſign he had form'd of beſieging Wiſmar, and that he is now reſolv'd to make a Deſcent into Scania. The Duke of Wirtemberg and General Scholten are ſent for to Copenhagen, to aſſiſt at a great Council of War which is to be held there in relation to this Expedition. On the 27th paſt, the Danes began to raze the Fortifications of Tonningen; the Counterſcarps are already demoliſh'd. The Cannon is embark'd in order to be Tranſported to Copenhagen, and it is ſaid the whole Work will be compleated in three Weeks. The Conferences are begun at the Congreſs of Brunſwick, and are to be held regularly three times a Week. Count Dhona, the Pruſſian Ambaſſador at the Court of Vienna, has had his Audience of Leave, and intends to ſet out very ſoon for Berlin. Baron Goertz has had ſome warm Diſputes with the Miniſtry of that Court, upon the taking of Tonningen, and the Engagements his Pruſſian Majeſty had enter'd into with the Houſe of Holſtein, in caſe that Place ſhould be oblig'd to ſurrender to the Danes. Counſellor Hagen, who was ſent to Stockholm to ſollicit the return of the young Duke of Holſtein into his own Dominions, was very coldly receiv'd by the Regency of Sweden. Letters from Turky bring an account, that his Swediſh Majeſty was perfectly recovered of his late Indiſpoſition, and intended to leave the Ottoman Empire in a ſhort time, but it was ſtill uncertain whether he would return home by Sea or by Land. The Grand Signior advis'd him to chuſe the former way, but his Majeſty ſeem'd inclinable to preſer going with a Guard of Turks through Poland.

Bruſſels, March 31. N. S. On the 27th fourteen large Ships arrived at Oſtend from London, on board which two of Her Majeſty's Regiments of Horſe and one of Dragoons, quarter'd in the Cities of Gand and Bruges, are to be tranſported to Great Britain. The Horſe march'd Yeſterday from Gand
